

Report of the Interim Strategic Director

REVIEW OF POLLING DISTRICTS AND POLLING PLACES1. Purpose of report

To inform the Committee of the arrangements for the review of polling districts and polling places to be carried out later in the year.

2. Background

All relevant local authorities are responsible for reviewing UK Parliamentary polling districts and places for so much of any constituency as is situated in their area. The Electoral Registration and Administration Act 2013 introduced a change to the timing of compulsory reviews; the next is to be started and completed between 1 October 2018 and 31 January 2019 (inclusive). The length of the process is not specified in legislation but should allow sufficient time for consultation to be carried out. Details of the process to be followed when carrying out a review is set out in the appendix.

The review in Broxtowe will be carried out between 1 October and 11 November 2018. A further report will be submitted to this Committee on 3 December 2018 setting out responses received to the consultation and recommendations for any changes to be considered by Council on 19 December 2018.

If any changes are made to polling district boundaries the Electoral Registration Officer must amend the electoral register accordingly. A revised register will, if necessary, be published on 1 February 2019, the first publication of a notice of alteration after the register is published on 1 December 2018. The (Acting) Returning Officer will also be required to comment on both existing polling stations and the polling stations which would likely be used if any new proposals for polling places were accepted. Election rules require the (Acting) Returning Officer to decide how many polling stations are required for each polling place and must allocate electors to the polling stations as they think most convenient.

While legislation does not provide a role for the Electoral Commission in the review process, specified interested parties may make representations to the Commission to reconsider any polling districts and polling places once the Council has published the results of its review. The Commission may direct the Authority to make any alterations to the polling places which it thinks necessary and, if the alterations are not made within two months, may make the alterations itself.

3. Financial implications

There are no financial implications associated with the review.

Recommendation

The Committee is asked to NOTE the report.
